not likely to be mistaken, that upon the principles stated above there will be a balance in favor of Col. In the course of a most abject, oringing article, wherein the writer begged the South to stay in the Union, and that he and his doughface friends intended to stand by them, and continue to give them all they asked, he adds: When, gentlemen, did the Democra-ey of the North desert you, or refuse to Jackson, Oct. 18, 55-30 ey of the North desert you, or refuse to stand by you? Never. It gave you President Polk and Texas, and it gave you the Fugitive Slave Law, and it gave you

President Pierce and the Nebraska bill. What more can you ask? We readily admit that these were your rights, but we point to them only to show the Northern Democracy always has and always will give you your rights." These are pertinent questions. When indeed, did the Locofoco party of the North ever fail to play the tool of the slave power? Look at the above confession ! - last crowning act of infamy, the Nebraska bill, was given to the South by the North. The subject of Slave extension came up in the councils of the propagandists, and the demand was made. Atchison told Douglas of their wants, and forthwith, Donglas hastened to do their bidding. The President and the party, ever subservient, were equally auxious to show their devotion to the Slave Power. And all this has been done and is still done in the much abused and outraged name of the Democarcy ! People of Ohio, you see what is expecmust continue to support the Nebraska bill. You must sustain the President, and his tools and minions in their war upon freedom. You must wink at the invasion of Kansas, and must submit quietly to the dictates of the Missouri mob. Vote for Medill and the Locofoco ticket, and you &c., &c. will receive the plaudits of the New York Day Book, and papers and men of that school.
